

Healthy Watersheds, Healthy Communities Program Place-based Stewardship Education Professional Development Training for Middle and High School Teachers August 17, 2017

- River Raisin Institute 8:45 am – 4:45 pm
610 W Elm Ave, Monroe, MI 48162 (Minimum 6 SCECH hours)
Come early (8 am) for tour of this LEED certified facility!
- Carpool to activities at field locations in the area (p.m.)
- Training provided by Michigan Natural Features Inventory, MSU Extension through NOAA B-WET Grant
- Register by August 1st: Daria Hyde- hydeda@msu.edu 517-284-6189
- Limited to 25 participants - Full agenda and more information available

- Help students understand their local Great Lakes watershed!
- Explore impacts of transportation and other stressors on watershed health.
- Learn about coastal wetlands and associated plants & animals.
- Identify potential stewardship opportunities for students.
- Get your students learning outside!
- This program addresses Next Generation Science Standards.

