

2019 Lake Superior Fisheries Workshop

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY | Extension

Additional Workshop Sponsors and Contributors:

- Michigan Tech University
Great Lakes Research Center
- Great Lakes Indian Fish and Wildlife Commission
- WI Sea Grant/ WI DNR
- USGS GL Science Center
- MI Department of Environmental Quality
- US Fish and Wildlife Service

Workshop Registration:

Workshop is free and open to all!
Pre-registration is requested, but not required. Walk-in participation is always welcome!

Register Online:

<https://events.anr.msu.edu/2019LSFishWorkshop/>

Come learn about & discuss the Lake Superior fishery!

Open to the public, this workshop provides valuable information to the public and allows for public input.

Workshops will include information on...

- Fish populations and angler catch data
- Splake and Lake trout updates
- Changing angler demographics
- Buffalo Reef and stamp sands
- Sea Lamprey updates
- ...many other Lake Superior topics!

You are invited to participate!

Houghton, MI

Date: Monday, April 29th 2019

Time: 6:00 — 9:00 p.m.

Location: Great Lakes Research Center
100 Phoenix Drive
Houghton, MI 49931

Parking free after 4pm in lot 31 adjacent to GL Research Center

Program information or questions,
contact: Ron Kinnunen Michigan Sea Grant
(906-226-3687, kinnune1@msu.edu)

Workshop details and agenda available online:

www.miseagrant.umich.edu/explore/fisheries/fishery-workshops/