LAKE WHITEFISH
LIFE CYCLE

Spawning
Enters shallow water to spawn in fall

Egg
Deposited on shallow reefs in fall

Sac Fry
Hatches in spring

Larvae
- First feeds in spring
- Eats zooplankton
- Groups together around shorelines

Adult
- Lives in 50- to 200-feet of water
- Feeds near bottom

Juvenile
Leaves shallow, inshore waters by early summer and moves to deeper water

NOT TO SCALE. ILLUSTRATION: MICHIGAN SEA GRANT. MICHU-14-402